About Us

Ronald Kirby is the founder and owner of People Advocating Transition (The P.A.T. Center), a mental health facility dedicated to the provision of outpatient services for children/adolescents, adults, and families. The P.A.T. Center began operations in 2008. Among our accomplishments include membership in the Minority Business Owners Association and certification through Rehabilitative Services for Persons with Mental Illness (RSPMI) and the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF).

The P.A.T. Center provides an array of Rehabilitative Services for Person with Mental Illness (RSPMI) for the treatment and prevention of mental disorders. It is the practice of The P.A.T. Center to use evidence-based treatment. The P.A.T. Center's administrative office is located @ 620 South Laurel in Pine Bluff, AR.
