COVID-19

The health and safety of our clients, client's family, and staff is momentous to The P.A.T. Center. It is so important that we decided to close our offices to the public. We are still seeing and accepting new clients through Telehealth Services. Telehealth can be defined as the distribution of health-related services and information via electronic information and telecommunication technologies. Please let The P.A.T. Center help you and your love ones through this trying time.

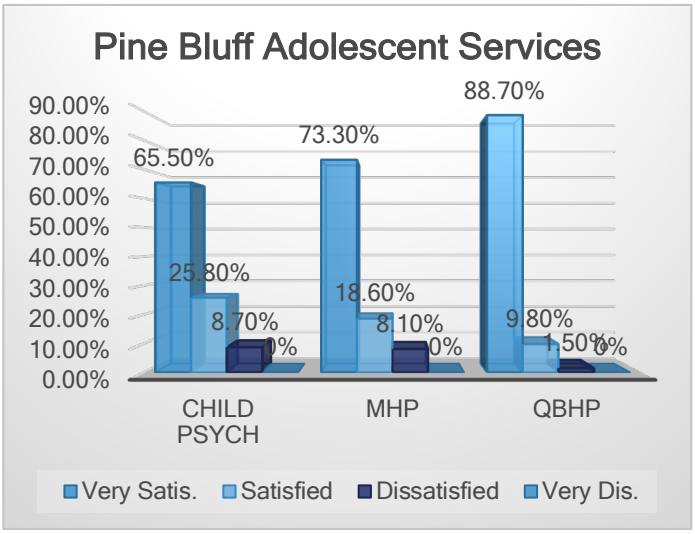
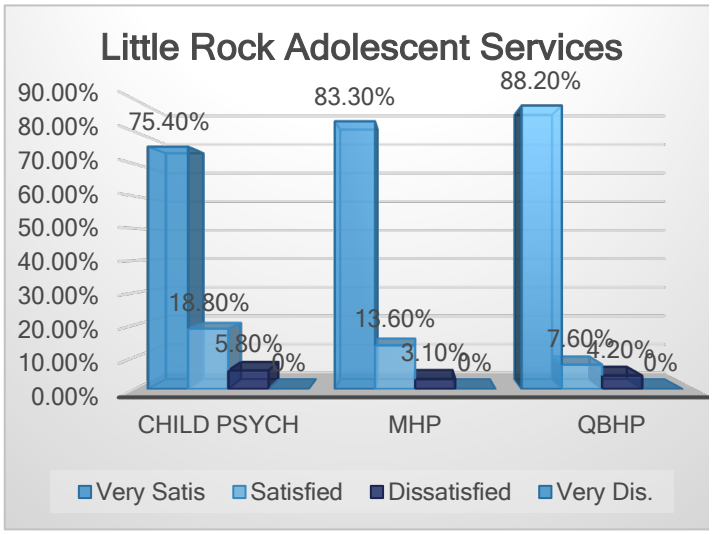
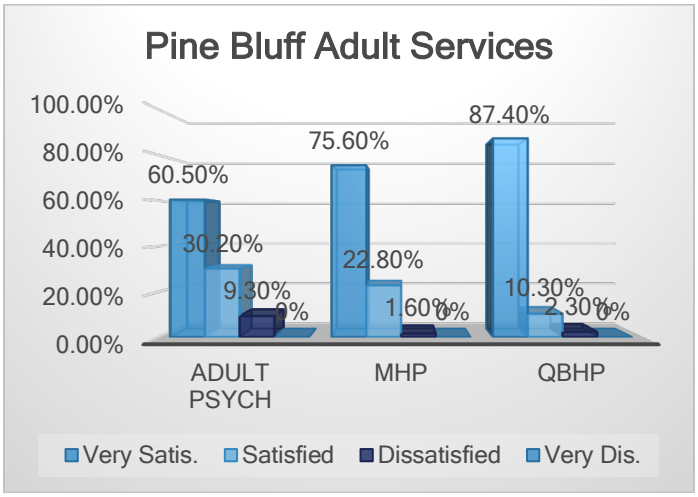
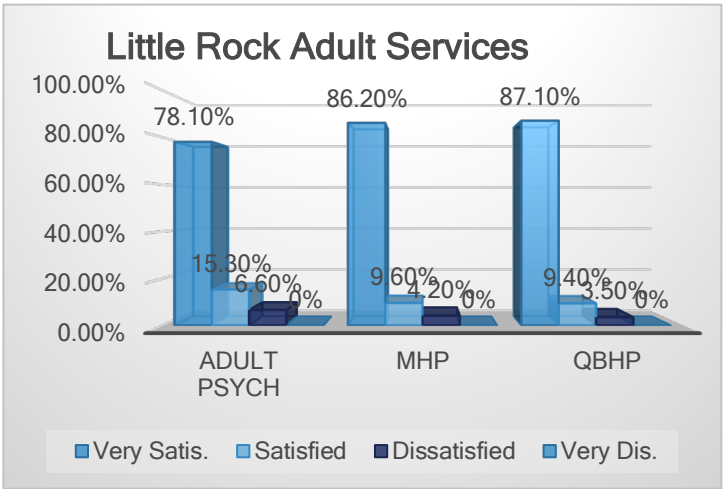
SATISFACTION SURVEYS









As CEO of the agency, I take the treatment of our clients seriously. The agency makes ongoing efforts to improve quality, accessibility, and effectiveness of services. Our clients, stakeholders, and employees' opinions matter so much to us that we decided to create a survey in effort to help us improve the quality of our services. Overall, the survey shows the clients are generally satisfied. –Ronald Kirby, CEO
